Dearest Margie:

I hope you want thank I am Crazy for writing you again, but if you do that is O.K. for I am Crazy.

Margie I have thought of you a lot, more than any body would think you have been on my mind for a very long time some times I would tell my self to forget her, and I would try, (but that is all) I have thought for a long time I would tell you, and then I would thank I couldn't, but now I have made up my mind to tell you, even tho it will be hard to do, and if you don't mind I would like to come down next week-end and do like Norman said he wanted to do, have you all to my self, and tell you what I want to, and in the way I want to. I am sure you have been disgusted, but you would not if you understood everything as I do, I know you want understand this, but after I see you you will understand, and be proud you don't understand it now.

Margie if you don't want to do this please don't do it, but if you do, write me as soon as you get this, or call me. if you want to call me you can call me at 7 o'clock at 754 Calhoun (und. right) and I will try to be at the wheel. but if I am not there, Call 466-8 and if I am not in, tell them to tell me when I come in to answer the Call, but if you don't want to write or Call, forget that I ever asked you to.

Honey let me tell you what Jack said, when we got out of town last Sun: he said you sho is crazy.
I said why Jack, he said for having a girl like that, I wud wifet & would you have done, he said. I would stay or bring her back with me.

well I went to see my mother & Dad this weekend. Mom said she wouldn't kill the fcted Calf, but she would kill the fcted rooster, so we had chicken for dinner.

Well Margie I suppose you are tired by now, so I had better start to stoping, but if I do come down I hope I can thank of all I could tell you just now. I could sit and talk to you for 5 hours and never stop, I fit.

So you be a sweet girl, and don't think I am crazy, but think this I will know some day, so by for now and remember I will never forget you.

As Ever

Dearest Margie:

I am back at nacogdoches, just got in, and I am really tired. I didn't want to go yesterday but the office called me and asked me to go to Sweetwater. and I told them I couldn't go, so they asked me to come to the office, so I had to go. I have worked 79 hours this week.

Margie you said you were surprized at the way I felt, well you should have known I felt some way, or crazy one.
(mefie fath)

So you say I am a nice person (well I am proud you think so) but never in my life before have I felt toward a Girl as I do you. when I first saw you I must say that I was disgusted with the whole world, so I just said she is just another Girl, ~~to be~~ like all of the rest, but from time to time I found out that I was wrong, you are not like all of the rest, you are different from any of them. you are just what you are, or not trying to deceive nobody. So now when I think of you, I think of you as one of the nicest, sweetest Girls I ever saw; and by me thanking

3

~~that~~ I thought it wise to have you alone. But during the time I spent at Orange I had several people to ask me this, what are you a Dam fool? I would ask them why, so they would tell me what they would do for you, if they had a chance. I would say you mean you would try, so I still say they would try, and will keep saying it until I know that I am ~~being~~ wrong. (and I hope I never find that out.)

Margie if I could have come down yesterday, I could have made you understand every thing, better than I can writing it, but I guess every thing happens for the best. but I hope some day I can tell you all of it,

Margie you said you thought I looked upon you, just as a friend, after I have told you this much, do you think so I could do that? If you do, you are wrong some people might could, but I can't. so if you feel we are close friends. (well I am lucky)

well I am so tired an sleepy I can hardly sit up. ~~so~~ so I had better go to bed I am too sleepy to write.

So you be a sweet Girl and don't think that this is just a lot of (Bull,) for if this was the last word I would write I would still write the same thing.

So Bye for now
 Dnd.

Excuse this writing. for I am really sleepy and I want to ask one thing of you. (and I know you want mine.) just as soon as you read this turn it up.
