JUSTIFICATION (Include standard duty position, title, and code, as listed in AFM 30-52.)

It is recommended that in the best interest of the Air Force Reserve in regard to possible future utilization of the subject officer, that he be awarded as second additional AFSC - 645 Petroleum Supply Officer. The award of AFSC 645 would bring his military specialty more in line with his civilian occupation and experience. For the past 12 years this officer has worked in the Analytical, Testing and Research Laboratories of a local major oil refinery. He is thoroughly familiar with the analytical and testing procedures for petroleum products as outlined by the American Society for Testing Materials and in daily contact with a large variety of petroleum products, and he is thoroughly familiar with fuel handling, storage methods, and physical characteristics.
